Winter at the Marina

While the colder weather has arrived, there's still plenty happening around Westernport Marina. From a successful Biggest Morning Tea and an exciting new partnership with Premier Yachting, to continuing Test & Tag works, winter detailing specials and preparations for our Opening of the Season Night, there's plenty to share in this edition. A huge thank you to everyone who supported our Biggest Morning Tea. Thanks to the generosity of our clients, guests, staff and sponsors, we exceeded our fundraising goal, raising $1,002.50 for the Cancer Council. It was a fantastic morning and a wonderful example of our marina community coming together for a great cause. We're also pleased to welcome Premier Yachting as Westernport Marina's preferred yacht brokerage partner. You'll find more information about this exciting partnership later in the newsletter. Our annual Test & Tag program will continue throughout the marina over the coming weeks to help ensure all electrical equipment remains safe and compliant. We appreciate everyone's patience while this important work is carried out. If your boat is looking a little tired over winter, don't miss the latest Boat Detailing special, with 50% off a Classic Wash and a further 25% off any additional detailing service when added to the wash package. More details can be found inside.

Planning is also underway for our Opening of the Season Night, with Friday, 2 October 2026 currently proposed. We've received some great interest already, however we'd love to see more confirmations to ensure the evening goes ahead. If you're interested in attending, please let the office know. Finally, a friendly reminder that our Members Lounge is a shared space for everyone to enjoy. We kindly ask that you clean up after yourself. As always, thank you for being part of the Westernport Marina community. We hope you enjoy this edition of our newsletter and look forward to seeing you around the marina.

LITHIUM-ION BATTERY SAFETY

Reminder

As more boating equipment relies on lithium-ion batteries, it's important to understand how to use and charge them safely.

From cordless tools and portable speakers to e-foils, trolling motors, tablets and power banks, many everyday items onboard now contain lithium-ion batteries.

COMMON ITEMS CONTAINING LITHIUM-ION BATTERIES THAT YOU MAY HAVE ON YOUR BOAT.

SAFETY BEST PRACTICES

- ✓ Only use chargers recommended by the manufacturer.
- ✓ Never leave batteries charging unattended or while away from your vessel.
- ✓ Allow batteries to cool before charging.
- ✓ Replace any battery that has been dropped, damaged or shows signs of swelling or overheating.
- ✓ Store batteries in a cool, dry place away from direct sunlight and combustible materials.

A battery fire can develop rapidly, so taking a few simple precautions can make a significant difference.

Supporting Our Local Volunteer Marine Rescue (VMR)

Westernport Marina is proud to support the dedicated volunteers of Volunteer Marine Rescue (VMR), with rescue units based in Mornington and Hastings. Established in 1980, VMR was formed following a tragic boating incident that highlighted the need for a local, rapid-response marine rescue service. Today, VMR volunteers provide invaluable assistance to boaters across Port Phillip and Western Port Bay, working closely with Victorian Water Police and Coast Guard and other emergency services.

If you're interested in giving back to the boating community, VMR is always looking for new members. Whether you'd like to volunteer on the water or assist with fundraising and community events as an auxiliary member, there are many ways to get involved.

In an emergency, always call 000.

For general enquiries or to learn more about volunteering with VMR, contact Volunteer Marine Rescue on 0419 233 999.

Westernport Marina thanks all VMR volunteers for the outstanding service they provide to our boating community.
